

Charles Thomas Laboo

August 10, 1945 - December 13, 2016

Charles Thomas Laboo entered into eternal rest Monday, December 13, at Palmetto Richland after an illness.

Born in Johnston, South Carolina, the eldest of seven children, Charles enjoyed a normal childhood until one day he fell and could not get up. Despite this calamity and suffering from kidney disease, Charles enjoyed a happy childhood, becoming a resident of Midlands Center at the age of 10 but going home on weekends and holidays. Charles enjoyed watching TV (especially cowboy shows), laughing, and good food.

In addition to his parents, Charles was preceded in death by three siblings: Dan Laboo, Tom Laboo, and Joseph Medford Jones.

Left to cherish his precious memories are four siblings: Junior (Annette Williams) Laboo of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Dennis Laboo of Johnston, and Jay Laboo and Rebecca Laboo (James) Jackson, both of Avon Park, Florida; 10 nieces; 8 nephews; the residents of Magnolia Hall - Midlands Center; and a host of loving relatives and friends who will miss his infectious spirit.

Comments

“ My condolences in the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by the words found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the scripture soon to be fulfill at Isaiah 33:24 which says: And no resident will say: "I am sick". The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error. May these scriptures provide comfort and encouragement to you at this sad time.
