

Alzena Robinson Williams

July 9, 1946 - December 9, 2018

In the early morning hours of Sunday, December 9, 2018, the Lord reached down to take the hand of Alzena Robinson Williams to lead her home. Born in Pomaria, South Carolina, on July 9, 1946, she was the daughter of the late Thelma Sullivan and raised by her stepfather Calvin Sullivan.

Educated in the public schools of Newberry County, she was a graduate of Gallman High School in the Class of 1964. She was employed at Craft-Farrow Hospital, and later at the Department of Mental Health. After thirty-one years of dedicated service, she retired from the Department of Mental Health.

In the early nineties, she joined Brookland Baptist Church. In addition to her church service, she was actively involved in her community, serving in many organizations: Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) North Main Post; Eastern Star #342 (Evening Star); and as Secretary-Treasurer for the Slo Rollers Bowling Team.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two brothers: Johnny Lee Robinson and Thomas Harrison.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her beloved husband of fifty-one years, Buster Williams of the home; a son, Thomas D. Williams; a grandson, Thomas D. Williams, Jr.; special cousins: Kaye (James) Leysath, Kim Barr, Darlene Barr, Pameco (James) Suber; four sisters-in-law: Ethel Scott, Estell Williams Lunford, Beatrice Bates, and JoAnn Williams; a brother-in-law, Isaac (Vivian) Williams; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To Buster and Tom. I'm just now finding out that Mrs. Al is gone. I'm in such a shock, but I must take comfort knowing that she is in a better place. I'm so sorry for your loss and please know that God is still on the throne and he is with you and Tom each and every day. Lexington Mental Health Transportation Crew.
