

Andre Leite Sullivan

May 11, 1966 - June 23, 2017

Andre Leite Sullivan, departed this earthly life , Friday, June 23, 2017, at his home in West Columbia. Born May 11, 1966, in Bridgeport, Connecticut, he was the son of the late Adriano Leite Silva and the late Margaret Sullivan. He was a graduate of Warren Harding High School in Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Andre enjoyed being active in his community and volunteer work including feeding the homeless and helping the food truck workers at his job. Additionally, he loved shopping, making people laugh. Andre made it a point to reach out to his family daily, via telephone or text. After his relocation to Columbia, South Carolina, over fifteen years ago, Andre traveled home to Bridgeport several times a year to visit his family, particularly his grandson.

Raised a Baptist, Andre had gotten back into the spiritual aspect of his life with a renewed focus on the tenets of the Baptist faith. Often called “sunshine” for the way he brightened everyone’s day, Andre was known as a devoted worker who went above and beyond in his position at Amazon.

In additiona to his parents, Andre was preceded in death by two brothers: Anthony Silva and Adriano Leite Silva.

Andre leaves to cherish precious memories his three children: Jasmyne Simone Sullivan, Marquise Thomas Holbrook, and Tyquise Holbrook; one grandson, Thomas Brandon Cooper; two sisters: Michele Sullivan and Coisha “Coy” Sullivan; and a host of other relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.

“ I am sorry that I am just finding out that Andre passed away. My deepest condolences to the family. I am deeply saddened by him passing. He was a good friend. He would come to my house often to visit with my Sister Dawn who has passed as well. Again I am apologetic for just now finding out. May God be with him and his family members. Love you forever Andre
