June 15, 1955 - July 13, 2018

Life Reflections

Anthony Eugene Pringle, 63, entered into eternal rest on Friday, July 13, 2018 at Palmetto Health Tuomey in Sumter, South Carolina. Born on June 15, 1955 in Sumter, SC, he was the youngest son of four children born to the late Manning Pringle and Juanita Glover Pringle. Anthony was educated in the public schools of Sumter County and was a graduate of Sumter High School, Class of 1973. Mr. Pringle was raised in Trinity Missionary Baptist Church. He was employed by Exide Battery Company for several years. Then in 1979, he enlisted in the United States Marine Corp and served his country for three years; while receiving the Good Conduct and Rifle Marksmanship Badges, the Meritorious Mast., and was honorably discharged. Anthony remained in Jacksonville, North Carolina where he was employed as a long distance truck driver. After retirement, he resided in Hampton, Virginia (1997-2006) and worked for the Hampton VA Medical Center and finally returned to Sumter. Anthony was a warm and jovial person, he was known for telling and playing jokes with his relatives and friends. In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing, playing basketball, traveling, spending time with his family and he loved to eat. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Manning Pringle, Jr.

Those left to cherish precious memories are: a son, Emanuel Eugene Pringle, Sr., Raleigh North Carolina; two grandchildren, Emanuel E. Pringle, II and Jeremiah, J'mar McLamb; brother, Thomas C. Pringle, Sr., sister, Theresa
