“ I am sitting at home in Columbia, Md. looking at the 1962 Baltimore City College yearbook pictures of Benjamin and Irvin Bethel. I did not know them well, but I well remember them in our teacher Edward Baublis' 10th grade geometry class, our first year at City. Benjamin was thinner than Irvin, Both were attentive, good students. I don't know why that tiny memory stuck in my brain. there was no particular incident, or telling exchange. I was just impressed with them and have remembered them all these years.

In the yearbook, Benjamin listed Student Govt. patrols 2(sophomore year), The Diary of Anne Frank,3(junior year), and intramural sports under his name. He had a star next to his name, which means he had an academic average of 85 or higher.

Irvin played freshman- sophomore football, , was in the model aviation club , the photography club, and also did Student Govt. patrols, though I don't really know what that was about.

I'd like to know more about what Benjamin and Irvin did with their lives, and would have liked to attend the funeral, except that it is too far away.

My name is Larry Carson. I grew up in Baltimore and have lived in Columbia, Md. since 1978. my e-mail is karasov1@hotmail.com. I am on Page 121 of the yearbook, if the family has a copy.
