

Betty Lee Glenn - Washington

March 13, 1946 - April 29, 2025

Sister Betty Glenn Washington departed this earthly life and stepped into the arms of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for her eternal rest in the early hours of Tuesday morning, April 29, 2025, after fighting the good fight of faith. She was born on March 13, 1946, in Columbia, South Carolina to the late Mr. Wesley Wages and Mrs. Mary Ann Bookert Jiles. Sister Washington was always known to be friendly and direct and a pillar in her family.

A graduate of C. A. Johnson High School, she continued her education at Midlands Technical College and retired from Prism Health Hospital, formerly Richland Memorial Hospital after 23 years as a medical secretary.

Sister Washington known for her passion for living life to the fullest, did not let “grass grow under her feet”. She traveled with her husband all around South Carolina. Even during her illness, she displayed her love for her husband, family, friends, and more importantly, her love for God, always joyously present to give support. Sister Washington loved being in church, singing and giving God glory and honor. You would know when she was in church, by the sounds of praise she rendered unto the Lord. She always made sure she had a song to sing for her husband whenever he preached. Sister Washington was a people person. She loved people and wouldn't bite her tongue to encourage you to be happy and to love God. She made herself a stranger to no one.

Sister Washington was preceded in death by her father, Mr. Wesley Wages; her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Bookert Jiles; son, Morris Alex Glenn, Jr.; brother, David Bookert.

She is survived by her husband, Minister Andrew Washington; sister Mrs. Letha Harris; brother-in-law, Mr. Harold (Lillian) Washington; step-son, Anthony Washington, 2 stepdaughters, Angelin (Frank) Major and Joeletta Washington; 6 step-grandchildren 2 nephews Grandvelle (Tiffany) Harris and Michael Harris, along with a host of other relatives and friends.
