“ *Dear Wayne, Tam, Sherman and Hope
You are in my thoughts and prayers. I knew your Mother for most of my life. I grew up calling her Cousin Betty. I always admired her She had a sweet and gentle spirit and was one of the nicest people I ever knew. May the peace of the Lord that passes all understanding be with you at this time and always.
My love to you all.*

“ *Betty was one of my first colleagues in Sumter. She was a good friend and a fine librarian. Because of people like Betty, Sumter quickly became home.
I hope it is helpful for her family to know that others are thinking of you.*
