

Brenda E. Hemingway

December 8, 1950 - March 10, 2016

Graveside Interment will be held 3:00pm Friday, March 25, 2016 at Evergreen Memorial Park, Sumter. Brenda E. Hemingway, 65, died March 10, 2016 in Silver Springs, Maryland. Born in Sumter, she was a daughter of the late Abraham Hemingway and Rose Woods Hemingway. She was a graduate of Sumter High School and received a Master's Degree in Library Science from Atlanta University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Brenda was employed as a Librarian at the Library of Congress in Washington D. C. and retired after 38 years of service. She was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Funeral services were held March 19, 2016 at Bright Light Baptist Church in Takoma Park, Maryland.

Surviving are her sister, Betty (Anthony) Brundidge, Laurel, Maryland; niece, Antone' (Osei) Daniels, Beltsville, Maryland and numerous cousins.

Tribute Wall

“ Brenda E. Hemingway

October 04, 2023 at 11:33 AM

“ Brenda Hemingway was one of the brave pioneer children who helped integrate the Sumter public schools during the "Freedom of Choice" period. In 1967 she was one of the first African American children to graduate from white Edmunds High School. She attended Edmunds 1965-1966 and 1966-1967. My admiration is boundless.

Geraldine Ingersoll, 1959 Edmunds graduate

Geraldine Ingersoll - March 24, 2016 at 10:51 AM