

Mr. Carl Johnson

September 13, 1917 - March 29, 2014

Carl Johnson was born on September 13, 1917, in Miami, Florida. He was a son of Herbert C. Johnson and Caroline Murray of Eluethera, Bahamas; and brother of Anton H. Johnson. He was the father of Carl Johnson Jr., Brenda Johnson Encarnacion and Karla Freeman; grandfather of Joanne E. Watkins (Roger), Andrew L. Encarnacion, Lisa Freeman-Norman, James P. Freeman, Veronica Freeman Robinson (Terence) and Ronald Freeman, great grandfather of Ryan A. Watkins, Royce I. Watkins, Reece O. Watkins, Ahmad M. Encarnacion, Jasper P. Baskerville, Nadayea Encarnacion, Andrew M. James, Royce L. Encarnacion, Jordan Gray, Sinara Norman, Deja Robinson and a host of other great-grands.

Carl attended school in Miami, Florida and New York. He served his country honorably in the Army where he was stationed in Europe and the Asiatic Sea. He was a proud business owner and salesman most of his life. He owned a grocery store in Harlem, NY and worked for over 30 years as a car salesman at Mid-County Buick in Brooklyn, NY. In Columbia, he was the owner of several businesses including his most recent, Mid-County Monuments. He moved to Columbia, SC in 1975 from Brooklyn with his extended family, Sandra Anthony and son Ronald Anthony where they lived until her untimely death in November 2013.

His dedicated caregivers in his last months were Ronald Anthony and his wife Michelle and their son Xavier Pinkson who called him Grandpa. He loved God and conversing with people about life on all levels.

We give thanks to all of his South Carolina family and friends for contributing to his life; with special thanks to Monique Shaw and family.

A Visitation with Mr. Johnson's family is scheduled for 6-8:00 pm Thursday, April 3, 2014 at Palmer Memorial Chapel. Interment will be held later at the Washington Crossing National Cemetery, Newtown, Pennsylvania. The family request that if you wish to send condolences or memorials, please do so on the web page at www.palmermemorialchapel.com.
