“ My heart is really sad and I'm in shock to see one of my best friends from middle school/high school gone. We were in "Strings" class together at Alice Drive back in the day. We sat beside each other in the back where the Bass players sat along with our other bass player Eric Johnson. We used to cut up EVERYDAY laughing and joking while learning to play our instruments. Such a warm, lovin, caring, funny person she was. As I sit here reminiscing, I hear her hearty laugh. My heart goes out to her family and her husband and son. God bless and keep you all.
