

Charlotte Cooper Tyler

May 7, 1922 - January 30, 2013

Charlotte Cooper Tyler, born to the late Eugene and Olivia Taylor Cooper on May 7, 1922 in Darlington, SC transitioned to her eternal place in Christ Jesus on January 30, 2013.

Charlotte Cooper Tyler was a graduate of the Darlington, SC school system and later ventured to NYC and settled in Utica, New York embarking on a career in dietary health care. Utica, New York is also where Charlotte met and married Horace D. Tyler. The two became pillars in their community building relationships that continued to be cherished. Charlotte and Horace began their journey towards retirement in 1983 living in New Jersey briefly before settling permanently in Columbia, SC where Wesley United Methodist Church became their place of worship.

Charlotte Cooper Tyler is preceded in death by her parents Eugene and Olivia Cooper; husband, Horace D. Tyler; middle son, Richard Darryl Cheshire and siblings; Ann Cooper Gilbert, Eugenia Cooper Dickerson, Estes Cooper Wilson, Arthur Cooper, Harold Cooper and James Cooper.

Charlotte Cooper Tyler leaves to cherish her Memory two sons; Clarence L. Cheshier (Verneda-Marilyn of Somerset, New Jersey, Denton Eric Tyler (Sonjetta) of Waxhaw, North Carolina, a sister; Evelyn Cooper Heard, of Springfield Gardens, New York, and grandchildren; Rebecca Pulliam and Eric

Pertila (Richard) and Tenisha Tyler Gilmore (Denton); great grandchildren; Cornell Gilmore, III and Lillian Gilmore and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends

Cemetery Details

Memorial Gardens of Columbia

Tribute Wall

“ Charlotte Cooper Tyler

October 04, 2023 at 11:33 AM