“ Dear Family,

My life has been blessed with the memories of growing up in the Davis household and my relationship with Clint. He is my second brother from my second Mother. My fondest memories are the Friday night fish Ms Davis would cook, watching all those Sunday afternoon basketball games with Mr Davis and the boys, watching the grandkids grow up, and most of all, the talks Clint and I would have riding in the Fiat. We talked about everything and went everywhere together for years. We grew up together and eventually grew apart but those memories of you guys allowing me to be a part of your family will always be a fabric of my life. Bruce, Joe, Ms Davis, Kids.....I love you all! God bless you.
