

Clinton Levar Johnson

January 13, 1984 - May 15, 2021

Clinton Levar Johnson, affectionately known as “Bo- Bo” was called home to be with the Lord on Saturday, May 15th, 2021 at Prisma Health Baptist Hospital.

Clinton was born on January 13th, 1984 in Columbia, South Carolina to the late Deloris Johnson and Clifton Johnson. Clinton professed his life to Christ at any early age and enjoyed quoting his favorite bible scriptures. He attended the public schools Richland County School District One and was a graduate of Kennan’s High School class of 2002; where he played football- earning the title MVP award in 2001-2002 football season. He also attended the illustrious South Carolina State University where he took pride in being a mighty bulldog. Clinton worked at Fort Jackson Army Lounging from 2005-2011 until his health declined. Even during his journey through dialysis, Clinton was a devoted t-ball, football, and basketball coach in the Richland County community. He also enjoyed landscaping and housing maintenance in the Columbia area. Clinton was family oriented man, who enjoyed deep frying and catching fish, taking family vacations, and mentoring the youth as much as he could. He was a lifelong New England Patriots fan, and his favorite player was Tom Brady. He also was a fan of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Clinton was preceded in death by his mother Deloris Johnson.

He leaves to cherish his memories two children, Kennedy Johnson and Kamonte’ Simons, and his fiance’ Kimberly Simons of the home. His father Clifton Johnson of Columbia, South Carolina; two brothers, Clayton Johnson and William (Taneeka) Moore of Columbia, South Carolina; one sister Courtney Johnson of Columbia, South Carolina; three nephews; Ayden Smith, Dion Smith, and William Isiah Moore all of Columbia, South Carolina; an uncle Robert Carl Moore of Cottageville, South Carolina; two aunts Rachel Williams of Walterboro, South Carolina; Sylvia (Freddie) DuBose of Columbia, South Carolina; one God brother Tyrell Goodwin of Columbia, South Carolina, and a host of other loving relatives and friends whom will cherish his memory and miss him dearly.
