

Ms. Daisy Starnes

December 30, 1936 - December 10, 2022

Daisy Williams Starnes wife of the late Charles Starnes transitioned on December 10, 2022 in Columbia, SC. Born in Knights Hill, SC, she was the last of twelve children from this union of the late Lawrence Williams and Daisy Brown, whom she was named after.

Daisy remained in Knights Hill until the age of 15, then she moved to live with her brother, George and his wife, Gladys in Connecticut. She would go on to complete her high school education and later move to Brooklyn, NY, where she met the man whom she would later marry, Charles Starnes.

Surviving are her children; son Cazembe Bektemba of East Orange, NJ and daughter, Lori Starnes Isom of Columbia, SC; three grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lori, I just discovered the passing of your dear Mother. My deepest sympathy and prayers for peace for you, your brother and family in your earthly loss of your dear Mother and my Loving friend, Daisy. As I was searching for you after viewing my "Charcoal" portrait that you created of me nearly 20 years ago, was when I discovered the transition of your beautiful Mother. My heart felt condolences to you.

Charlyce Goodwin - November 04, 2023 at 11:36 AM

“ Ms. Daisy Starnes

October 04, 2023 at 11:33 AM