

Darrell Eugene Davis

January 5, 1960 - May 15, 2021

Darrell Eugene Davis, aka LaGuardia Robert Vetter, died on Sunday, May 15, 2021 at his childhood home in Wedgefield, SC. Born in Germany on January 5, 1960, he was the youngest child of the late Roland H. Davis and Lottie Brown Davis.

He graduated from Hillcrest High School and attended Central Carolina and the University of SC. Darrell joined the United States Army, where he served as Quartermaster while stationed in Italy.

After returning home, he worked as a Surgical Room Technician at Tuomey Hospital in Sumter, SC. He also worked for National HealthCare where he provided great care, compassion and support to his patients.

Darrell was a voracious reader and loved a good game of chess. He was witty, spontaneous and could tell stories with great animation. Darrell was also an excellent cook and he enjoyed making model airplanes. He always went out of his way to show kindness and concern for others.

Darrell was preceded in death by his parents, Roland H. and Lottie Brown Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his children, Chelsee Davis and Jessica

Davis, both of Sumter, SC; his sister, Audrey D. (Ron) Bright of Columbia, SC; his granddaughter, Aeri Sole' Lewis; his former wife, Patricia W. Davis; his niece, Ronda Camille Bright of Los Angeles, CA; a host of cousins and friends who will miss him dearly.
