

Demetre Terrell Gayle

February 7, 1985 - January 28, 2024

YAHUSHUAH (Hebrew - True Savior) revealed to us that Demetre “Made It” to his eternal resting place!!! Demetre Terrell Gayle, was born @ Shaw Air Force Base, Sumter, SC on February 7, 1985, and crossed over to life on January 28, 2024, in Charlotte, North Carolina. “Meechie” as he was affectionately known, began his life’s journey in finding Yahushuah at an early age. He loved to participate in various programs displaying his many artistic abilities; singing, dancing, choreography, photography, gymnastic instructor, web page and business logo designer. Demetre was very creative, talented, and excelled in academics. He attended Benedict College and University of SC—both in Columbia, SC, and later received his Custom Broker license. He resided in Georgia, Tennessee, and Columbia, SC until moving to Charlotte, North Carolina in 2023. He had a very outgoing and outspoken personality and his presence brought great joy to those that knew and loved him. He was a natural comedian and his family enjoyed being around him during family events. He enjoyed traveling and experiencing life to the fullest. He will be missed dearly by his family and all those, whom lives he touched. He was preceded in eternal life by his Grandfather, William Gayle, Jr. and Grandmother, Annie Lee Brown Gayle. His memories will be cherished by his mother, Juanita G. Epps, Sumter, SC, his sister, Daijah T. Epps, niece’s Keilani D. Epps and Kiyah J. Epps, all of Simpsonville, SC, Aunts, Uncles, First and Second Cousins whom he loved dearly and many others.
