“ Hello I just found out a great man is gone. I know his family and friends will always miss and remember Dennis. I am very sorry for the pain that is felt. I prey for the hearts of all his family and friends. I wish I had more comforting words, but the truth is that I love Dennis very much and I too feel the lost. I had a great opportunity to get to know Dennis, not as long as I would hope for, but the time we shared the talks we had the memories we created the lessons he had giving me, I could go on. Dennis is a great man, a loving and loved man, a man of great morals, a man that I always carry in my heart, no matter how far from each other life had taken us, he will never be forgotten. I love and miss you Dad. Christian
