Derrick Da'vontrez Slater entered into eternal rest on Saturday, October 26, 2019 in Rembert, South Carolina. Born on March 15, 1996, in Camden, South Carolina, he was the oldest of three children born to Shandel Porter and Horace Wade, Jr. Derrick was a graduate of Crestwood High School in the Class of 2014. He was a member of the Union Baptist Church basketball team, in Rembert. After high school, Derrick moved to Norfolk, Virginia and continued his education at ATI Welding School. He later returned to the Rembert community and was employed at McDonald's in Camden for over five years and recently was promoted to a manager. In his leisure time, he loved music and wanted to be a writer, a rapper and a promoter. Derrick was also, an avid sports fan of football. He especially liked the Pittsburgh Steelers and loved to laugh and just enjoyed hanging around with his family. Just recently in August, he had the opportunity to host a Reveal Party, and was so excited about the upcoming birth of his first child.
