“ Aunt Earline was my godmother. She and my mother, Elizabeth H. Davis, were childhood friends in Columbia, SC. Aunt Earline called my mom, Liz. I'm told Aunt Earline introduced my mother to my dad and of course I'm grateful for that. My fondest memories are visiting Aunt Earline and Uncle Rudy in South Ozone Park, NY. We had a good time in that house. In fact I can still hear Barbara Acklin's "Love Makes a Woman" playing on the stereo. I last saw Aunt Earline two years ago in SC. She wasn't as energetic but I could feel her love and warmth through her gentle smile. Now, godmother, it's time to join uncle Rudy to restart the good times. Thanks for being a part of my life.

Peace and blessings to Veronica Albritton and the entire family. Well done! Well done!

“we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ”. Earline, your spirit was one of love, kindness and caring of others. I had the pleasure of being a witness and friend to that. You will be missed beyond words. You are truly at peace and home in the Kingdom that matters! I love you.

Im so sorry to hear this and so late. My condolences to the family. Mrs. Robinson was my Kindergarten teacher and family friend. I visited her in Columbia once but we later lost contact. She was like my school Mother because when I'd get in trouble at school the other teachers would tell her! I loved her and will continue to miss her RIP

“No words can express the depths of my sorrow over the loss of my Auntie Earline. She, along with her now departed sisters, served as a role model for all in our family as to what a true leader and servant is and can be. Her sweet spirit and stern manner inspired me to be the woman I am today. While I will miss her dearly, I am overjoyed that she is no longer in pain and she will be reunited with her sisters in heaven. I love you Auntie and I am looking forward to the day when we are together again.

“ Condolences to my family and friends of Earlene. She is resting in comfort with our Lord.

I Did Not Die

I give you this one thought to keep.

*Don't stand beside my grave and weep
I am not there I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glint on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle springtime rain.*

*When you awake in morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the stars that shine at night.*

*Don't stand beside my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.*

Rest in Peace, Earlene. Love you, will miss you. Amanda

“ My Aunt Earlene embraced, and supported all her family members. The joy and comfort she brought to our lives will not be forgotten. She was truly a heroine in her own right given her accomplishments; years of service, and accolades she received over the many years. Although her time here has come to an end, memories of her will always be everlasting.
