

Elizabeth Virginia Carter

January 22, 1948 - July 16, 2017

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.” John 14:27

At the age of 69, Elizabeth Virginia “Ginger” Carter answered God’s call for a last appointment on Sunday, July 16, 2017, at Sumter Health and Rehabilitation Center in Sumter, where she embarked upon a new journey to unite with family and friends in glory and to “Walk around heaven all day”.

Elizabeth Virginia was born January 22, 1948, in Lee County, South Carolina to the late Robert Carter, Sr. and the late Dora Mae Brunson Carter. Elizabeth Virginia was educated in the public schools of Sumter County and graduated from Lincoln High School in 1967. After graduating from high school, she relocated to Huntington, New York to pursue a career as a live-in sitter.

She later returned to Sumter, South Carolina to assist with the care of her younger siblings. Elizabeth Virginia was employed with Warth Childcare Center (New Beginnings at Warth Childcare) for 42 years later retiring in 2013.

At an early age, Elizabeth Virginia joined Unionville AME Church in St. Charles, South Carolina, where she strengthened her belief in God and persevered on her Christian journey by later joining Jehovah Missionary Baptist Church in Sumter, South Carolina. Due to her extended illness, Elizabeth Virginia faithfully studied her Bible and she enjoyed sitting in the company of others to discuss all things Biblical. Her favorite Bible passage was continuously echoed to all who would listen-Psalms 23.

Elizabeth Virginia enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, family, and children of the community, working in her yard, traveling with family and enjoying family gatherings. She also enjoyed lively conversations and fellowship with those she considered dear to her heart.

Elizabeth Virginia was preceded in death by her parents, her sister, Linda Diane Pack and her two brothers, John Lee "Mack" Carter and Gaston Barney Carter.

She leaves to cherish precious memories her children: Timothy Dwayne (Angel) Carter of Kings Mountain, North Carolina, Tammie (Jerry) Jenkins of Orangeburg, South Carolina, Kelley Carter of Boblingen, Germany, and Shawn (Latoya) Carter of Jonesboro, Georgia; her grandchildren, Aashad Carter, Tayliah Carter, Jasmine Jenkins, Eriel Carter, Denasia Carter, Essence Wheeler, Malcolm Carter, Eden Carter, Ka'dre Fuller, and Carlos (Kyarhia) Bell; one brother, Robert (Ann) Carter, Jr. of Sumter, South Carolina, four sisters, Patricia (Earl) Lancaster of Richmond, Virginia, Debbie (James) Rembert, Gloria Jean (Roger) Solomon, and Kathy Maples all of Sumter, South Carolina, one sister-in-law Joann Carter of Sumter, South Carolina; one brother-in-law, Russell Pack of Pinewood, South Carolina; a dear and close family member Betty Woods of Sumter, South Carolina, and a special cousin Betty Lesane of Sumter, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

“ UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

*Death is a brief separation
A temporary pain
Grieve not my dear
The sun will shine again
Death separates our bodies
But our hearts remain the same
And the memories of our love ones
Will soothe away your pain
And carry you over
Until we meet again.*

“ Blessings to the family. I pray that God will make this easy cross to bear. I do know just how hard it must be, however, I know that He promises in His word that He will be with you even unto the end. TRUST that He will. Keeping you in our prayers! Love, Betty Caesar-Conyers and Family in Wilmington,NC.
