

Eva Pearl Davis

January 18, 1932 - May 31, 2016

Eva Pearl Davis quietly left this realm for her heavenly reward, Tuesday, May 31, 2016, at the home of her beloved son and devoted and faithful daughter-in-law. Born in West Columbia, she was the daughter of the late Ernest and Francis (Grey) Dervin. Educated in the Lexington County public school system, Sister Davis was a graduate of Lakeview High School as well as a proud and faithful graduate of Allen University, Columbia, SC.

After matriculating at Indiana University with a Master's degree, Sister Davis returned to Lakeview where she taught for a year before relocation due to integration, at which point she served as the librarian for Airport High School.

Sister Davis was preceded in death by her beloved husband, William Davis, Sr. and her beloved son, Melvin C. Davis; along with a sister and five brothers.

Sister Davis leaves to cherish her precious memories a devoted son and devoted and faithful daughter-in-law, William Jr. and Linda; four grandchildren, one great-grandchild, a twin brother, two sisters-in-law, a special family friend, and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

“ My heart is sooo heavy in losing my beloved God-Mother. And because of health reasons, I am unable to make the trip to Columbia for her home-going celebration and what a celebration I know it is going to be. Mrs. Davis was my second Mother who was there for me during sickness and health.

She was my mentor in the church and in life. I love her with all of my being and will sorely miss our talks where she had the knack for brighten even my darkness days. She was my best friend in Columbia, one who could and would, tell me when I was wrong and what I needed to do to make it right. Rest in the arms of God's love Moma. I know you are right now sharing your humor and jokes with Jesus.

*Forever your daughter,
Sarah Brooks

“ Mrs. Davis was a soft spoken and mild mannered lady. She personified a "southern lady". She was always giving thanks and praise to her Savior. I am thankful for the quality time I spent with her. She will truly be missed.
