

Evangeline Denise Burden

August 29, 1959 - December 5, 2019

In the early morning hours of December 5, 2019, Evangeline Denise Burden quietly took her last breath at her residence in Elgin, South Carolina. Born August 29, 1959, in Norfolk, Virginia, she was the second of six children born to Dorothy Marie Lawrence Bynum and the late William Henry Bynum. She was the wife of Gregory Burden.

A graduate of Malcolm Shabazz High School in Newark, New Jersey, as a member of the Class of 1978, she then attended Robert Welch Business School, earning an Associates Degree in Business Administration. She met the love of her life at the age of fourteen in her hometown, and they married on April 10, 1980, in Newark, New Jersey. To this loving union, three children were born: Shenita, Malcolm and Marcus. During their thirty-nine years of marriage, she enjoyed spending time in Germany (her favorite), France and other countries where they traveled. In addition to traveling, she enjoyed the arts, home interior decorating and being with her family.

She was a faithful member of First Nazareth Baptist Church where she enjoyed the listening to the choir and hearing the Word of God. Evangeline was a spiritual person who encouraged her husband and family to come to First Nazareth Baptist Church for worship and fellowship.

In addition to her father, Evangeline was preceded in death by her older brother Clifford Lee Bynum.

She leaves to cherish precious memories her beloved husband Gregory Burden of Elgin, South Carolina; a daughter Shenita Burden of Columbia, South Carolina; two sons: Malcolm Burden of Brooklyn, New York, and Marcus Burden of Columbia, South Carolina; a step-daughter Tarnesha Carlisle of Norfolk, Virginia; three grandchildren: Damonte Burden, Tamia Burden, and Omari Davis; her mother Dorothy Marie Lawrence Bynum of Newark, New Jersey; four siblings: Sheila Gunther, Juanita Corbin, both of Newark, New Jersey, William Bynum of Florida, and Addis (Shirrona) Stafari of Los Angeles, California; other relatives and friends.
