

Gloria Y Murray-Rison

October 1, 1954 - October 8, 2018

Gloria Y. Murray-Rison was called from earthly labor to heavenly reward Monday, October 8, 2018, at her residence in Columbia. Born October 1, 1954, in Horatio, South Carolina, she was a daughter of the Janie Miller Murray and the late Ira Murray. A graduate of New Rochelle High School in the Class of 1972, she attended Livingstone College in Salisbury, North Carolina, and earned a Bachelor of Science in Public Administration from Columbia College and a Master's Degree from the University of South Carolina.

She served her nation in the United States Army and was employed at the William Jennings Bryan Dorn Veteran's Administration Hospital and Fort Jackson Transition Point. Later, she was an EEOC Specialist with the Department of Labor, and finally, she was a CADRE Unit specialist with FEMA during major emergencies.

Gloria leaves to cherish precious memories her daughter, Justicia Rison (Robert) Moore of Crofton, Maryland; three grandchildren: Ante Taylor, Joylen Bostic, and Justin Bostic; mother, Elizabeth Janie Murray of Horatio, South Carolina; brother, Clarence Murray of Lexington, South Carolina; devoted companion, Tyrone Steward of Columbia, South Carolina; and other relatives and friends who will miss her daily presence in their lives. The family requests potted plants rather than flowers.

“ I will never, never, ever forget Gloria's beautiful laugh. I can almost hear her laughing in heaven right now, she was a joy to be around. My last memory of Gloria telling the story about her and Justica was traveling on I-95 to SC hoping to see her Uncle Ernest and Lula Mae, who was also traveling to SC that day. With so many cars on the highway they did not think they would spot them. Then Gloria said they saw a GREAT BIG HAT in the back of a limo and she just knew that hat had to belong to Lula Mae. I am laughing right now the way she told the story. She had a knack for telling a story. Gloria is going to be miss by everyone, BUT, we all that are in Christ Jesus will be reunited with Gloria one day.

Curly told me today about Gloria wishes are that her ashes be carried with Justica them wherever they go. Gloria is still making me laugh now even after she has gone home. Making them children' carry her ashes up and down the road! (LOL)
