

Gwelda Armstrong Walker

March 19, 1949 - June 30, 2016

Services for Mrs. Gwelda Ann Armstrong Walker will be held Thursday, July 7, 2016, at 12 noon at the Palmer Memorial Chapel in Columbia with interment to follow at Fort Jackson National Cemetery. The public may view Mrs. Walker Wednesday, July 6, 2016, at Palmer Memorial Chapel from 2-8 PM. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial donations be made to the Sarcoidosis Foundation at www.stopsarcoidosis.org.

Mrs. Gwelda Ann Armstrong Walker was born in Cordele, Georgia, to the late Steve and Drunell Armstrong. On Thursday, June 30, 2016, at the Palmetto Richland Memorial Hospital, she went home to be with God.

She was joined in holy matrimony to Tommy Curtis Walker, and they were blessed with two sons, Tony and Michael. Gwelda worked for 27 years developing young minds in the Department of Defense Child Care System.

She leaves to cherish precious memories her loving children, Tony (Donna) Walker of Columbia, SC, and Michael (Joanne) Walker of Denver, CO; seven sisters; a sister-in-law; a brother-in-law; two grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends that rejoice she is resting comfortably with the Almighty God.

“ During a person's life they become known by many names. She was known as Gwelda, Ann, Gwelda Ann, Sis and Mrs Walker to those who knew her and loved her. To me she was one single word that sums up everything she was to me, MOM.
