

Harold W Spann

March 25, 1935 - June 14, 2019

Harold W. Spann entered into eternal rest on Friday, June 14, 2019 at McCleod Health in Manning South Carolina. Born on March 25, 1935 in Pinewood, South Carolina, he was the youngest of twelve children born to the late George Spann, Sr., and Malvenia Small Spann. Raised in his family's home church, New Hope United Methodist, he attended New Hope Elementary and later Manchester High School. In 1956, he married the love of his life, Annie Mae Dow and to this loving union, eight children were born. In his quest to seek employment, he moved to Thomasville, North Carolina where he worked at the furniture factory and retired after twenty years of service as the plant supervisor. After retirement, he moved back to the Pinewood Community and in his spare time, "Enoch", as he was so affectionately called, enjoyed his family's trait of farming. He loved gardening and raising his livestock, as well as gathering and entertaining the family with the ole time stories. "Enoch" never knew a stranger and will be dearly missed by all his family and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by three children: Jimmy Frank Spann, Albertha Spann and Franklin Benjamin Spann; six sisters and five brothers.

Those left to mourn and cherish his precious memories are: his beloved wife , Annie Mae Spann, Pinewood, South Carolina, two sons, Harry Spann, Pinewood, SC, and George Spann, Charlotte, North Carolina, ; three daughters, Isabell Spann, Malvenia (Curtis) Brummitt, and Carolyn Spann, all of Charlotte, North Carolina; five grandchildren; one great-grandchild ; one brother, Johnny, Spann of Pinewood, South Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and dear friends.
