

Mr. Harrison Sumter

March 1, 1960 - October 3, 2013

Harrison "John Stud" Sumter, 53, died Thursday, October 3, 2013 at the Palmetto Health Baptist in Columbia, SC. Born in Sumter County, he was a son of Geneva Sumter and the late James Ervin Green.

Harrison attended the public schools of Sumter County and was a graduate of Sumter High School, Class, 1979. He was employed with the Eaton Lumber Co., Carolina Furniture and was the owner and operator of "S & S" Lawn Care. He was a member of Congruity Presbyterian Church, (USA) in Gable, SC.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by an aunt, Mary S. Billie and his paternal grandmother, Oline Sumpter.

Surviving are two daughters, Jonetta Samuel and Nichole Charisse; two grandchildren, Chase and Cayden Samuel and his loving mother, Geneva Sumpter, all of Sumter, SC; five sisters; Anjie, Georgia, Vicky and Betty and Roxann; three brothers, Tyrone, Eric and Al; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews cousins, other relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be held 1:00 pm, Saturday, October 12, 2013 at the Congruity Presbyterian Church (USA),-Gable, SC with ,Rev. Dr. Ernest Jackson -officiating. Interment will follow in the Congruity Church Cemetery. The public may view from 2-7pm, Friday at the Palmer Memorial Chapel, 304 So. Main St. Mr. Sumter, will be placed in the church at 12:00 until the hour of service. The family will receive friends at the McKenzie's residence of 1045 Acres Ave., Sumter, SC.

Cemetery Details

Congruity Cemetery

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Harrison Sumter

October 04, 2023 at 11:33 AM

“ Me and Harrison had many good talks. I was his life insurance agent as well as friend. I always enjoyed seeing him every month. He had a contagious smile and a wonderful zest for life. He is and will be genuinely missed.

Jerry

Jerry - October 13, 2013 at 05:17 PM