

Mrs. Hattie Mae Brockington

March 8, 1951 - January 2, 2025

Mrs. Hattie Mae Brockington, affectionately known by all who knew and loved her as "Mae", was born on March 8, 1951 to Hattie Ann Bradley in Sumter, SC. She was married to her high school sweetheart, the late Phenis (Flap) Brockington, Jr for over 40 years. Mae departed this life on January 2, 2025 at Prisma Health Tuomey in Sumter, SC.

Mrs. Brockington graduated from Lincoln High School in Sumter, SC in 1969. She attended Sumter Area Technical College and was later certified as a nursing assistant. She worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant in various nursing home facilities and worked at Drapery Manufacturing as a curtain seamstress in Sumter, SC. She spent the majority of her life doing what she loved and that was being a housewife, a mother, and a grandmother. Later in her life she became the sole caregiver for her mother. In her spare time, she enjoyed cooking. Her specialty was collard greens, rice, and fried chicken. She also enjoyed growing indoor and outdoor plants, gardening, decorating, and listening to music. She really enjoyed spending her weekends on the deck at her daughter and son-in-law's home in Hopkins, SC, and she enjoyed traveling with them to the beach every chance she could.

Mrs. Brockington was preceded in death by her loving husband, Phenis (Flap) Brockington, Jr; by her brother, Mr. Joseph Bradley; and by her sister, Ms. Earnestine Bradley.

Her precious memories will forever be cherished by her loving mother of the home, Hattie Ann Bradley; her two loving children, Natasha (Thomas) Brockington-Days, Hopkins, SC and Nicholas (Kenitra) Brockington, Pearland, Tx; five grandchildren, Tazhanique Brockington, Joshua Brockington, Nikya Brockington, Kori Brockington, and Jordan Brockington; three great-grandchildren, Payton Smith, Paisley Smith, and Liam Smith; her brother, Willie (Dorothy) Bradley; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family, and friends.
