“ Hattie was a dear sister in the Lord and a faithful servant. She loved serving others and caring for the ill. I loved sitting with her at church and watching her enthusiastically praising her Lord. I will miss her joyful laugh. I was blessed to know her and call her my friend! May God comfort you Ryan, as only He can.

“ Hattie came into our lives over ten years ago. She was so much more than a caretaker for our Mother. She was a dear and loyal friend and a cherished part of our family. Hattie would come visit us at the beach every summer. Besides her beautiful soul, our favorite quality of Hattie's was her contagious laugh. I uploaded a picture of Hattie and our Mother at the beach last summer. With much love and prayers to Hattie and her family, the children of Loretta Punteney
