Dr. Henry T. Marshall, Jr., departed this earthly life on Tuesday, August 14, 2018, at his residence in Blythewood, South Carolina. Born May 6, 1941, in the historic Good Samaritan Hospital in Columbia, he was the youngest of four children and the only son of the late Henry T. Marshall, Sr. and Vivian Brier Marshall. He was passionate about his fraternity, Alpha Iota Boule, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Omicron Phi Chapter, and the Savannah Chapter of Guardsmen. In his spare time, he was an avid golfer and enjoyed gardening.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two sisters: Lorraine Marshall and Gwendolyn Clark; and his nephew, David Marshall.

He leaves to cherish precious memories his loving wife and companion of thirty-eight years, Janice Wannamaker Marshall of the home; a loving and attentive daughter, Jai-Shirelle Wannamaker Marshall of Charlotte, North Carolina; two sisters: Henri Etta Bynum of Columbia, and Marion Davis; three special nieces: Constance Aguayo, Gwendolyn Jackson, and Dr. Angela Davis; a nephew, Offie Clark; his mother-in-law, Verna Abney of St. Matthews, South Carolina; and other relatives and friends.

“ My sincere thoughts and prayers are with the Marshall family. While I did not personally know Dr. Marshall, it is easy to know that he was a very devoted man to his community, his friends, his church, and to his wife and family. I am so glad he was able to visit the ocean recently which I learned was special to him. I know he will be missed, but hope that Janice and the family can find comfort in knowing that he is now in a very special and loving place.

*Sincerely,
