

James Leroy Cantrell Sr.

February 4, 1938 - March 16, 2013

James Leroy Cantrell, Sr. was born February 4, 1938 in Gadsden, Alabama. He was the only child born to Marie Murphy Fikes and the late Milburn Cantrell. He died peacefully in his sleep at home with his wife, Vivian Cantrell, at his side on Saturday, March 16, 2013.

He served honorably in the United States Navy and will receive his military honors with burial at Fort Jackson National Cemetery.

He worked many years as a Case Manager and Substance Abuse Counselor at LRADAC and most recently at the Alston Wilkes Society.

He is survived by his wife, Vivian Trapp Cantrell, mother, Marie Murphy Fikes, step-daughter, Rhonda Green, granddaughter, Christal Green, son, James Cantrell, Jr., grandson, James Cantrell, III and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Cemetery Details

Fort Jackson National Cemetery

Tribute Wall

“ James Leroy Cantrell Sr.

October 04, 2023 at 11:33 AM

“ I will always love you dad. I just wish we had more time to make things right. James jr.

James cantrell jr - April 19, 2014 at 07:31 PM