

Janie Watson Epps

July 27, 1906 - November 27, 2012

Date of Service: December 03, 2012

Mrs. Janie Watson Epps was a wife and mother, one who always put the interest of her family in the forefront. She always saw to it that her family was provided for as best she could.

She was loving, caring, giving and filled with God's Holy Spirit. She served graciously and humbly - the exemplary life she lived was one that her family will forever strive to emulate - without a doubt, she lived a life that was pleasing in God's sight.

Janie went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday night, November 27, 2012. She was born in Richland County, South Carolina to the late Reverend Alfred and Lucinda Watson.

She was married to the late Mr. Rubin Epps, and was the Mother of Robena Epps Young of Columbia, South Carolina, Mary Turk of Detroit, Michigan, Leola (Albert) Brown of Greenville, North Carolina, Elizabeth Epps of Columbia, South Carolina and Alfred (Earlene) Epps of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. A son, Clarence Epps, preceded her in death.

She was a faithful member of Reeder Point AME Church in Columbia, South Carolina, where she served faithfully as a Trustee, Stewardess, with the Missionary Society, sang on the Senior Choir, and served as Treasurer of the Sunday School.

Janie taught her children to pray and know the Word of God for themselves.

Her favorite saying was "Do Right and Do Right will Follow you all the Days of Your Life, Do Wrong and Do Wrong will Follow You".

Those left to cherish memories of her include her children, thirteen grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren; one great great grandchild; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Services will be held 12 noon Monday, December 3, 2012 at Brown Chapel AME Church, with interment to follow in the church cemetery. Mrs. Epps will be available for viewing at the church one hour prior to the service on Monday.
