“ My most sincere condolences to the Warner/Streets family. Although I never knew Mrs. Joanne I was close friends in high school with her son Thomas. The love Thomas had for his mother was evident then and still is today. Her presence on this earth remains in the lives of her children and grandchildren. She was a light to the world. May she rest in heaven and may her family find comfort and strength to continue on. May god continue to bless this family. Shereda Coston
