

Laniah Renee Garner

June 21, 1995 - October 31, 2015

Laniah Renee Garner, 20, was born June 21st, 1995. Laniah was born to Rasheeta and Ibn Dutton. Niah and has two sister's: Kaylah Harrell, Idayah Harrell and two brother's: Michael Dorsey, and Angel Garner that she loved dearly.

At a very young age, Niah was dealing with some issues and her mother Rasheeta Garner sent her to live with her aunt Shenetta Green, also from Philadelphia PA. Niah was raised with Lanita Myers and Naheim Green and although cousin's, they were raised as siblings. They have a strong unbreakable bond and the love between them is truly pure.

Laniah attended elementary school in Philadelphia Pa and later was home schooled by her aunt Shenetta Green. At a young age, Niah was known as the "dancing queen" and there wasn't a dance contest she couldn't beat!

Later Niah's aunt, moved Niah, Nita and Naheim to Columbia S.C. Laniah attended E.L Wright and Richland Northeast High School. Niah will be remembered for her caring heart and feisty spirit. She had many friends and was devoted to each and everyone of them. She was a straight forward person with a sense of humor and showed love to anyone she encountered. Niah enjoyed dancing, ice skating, doing hair and had a particular style, she was a straight up "Diva".

On September 15th, 2014 Niah gave birth to her only son, Messiah Garner. Despite the obvious difficulties of being a teenage mother, Niah was a wonderful mother to her son and made sure her son never lacked for anything. Niah was a loving mother with the help of her mother Rasheeta Garner.

Niah leaves behind to cherish her memories a host of family and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
