

LeMorris Martin Bailey

July 27, 1938 - March 25, 2015

Mrs. LeMorris Martin Bailey, better known by her family and friends as “Fruttie”, was born in Columbia, South Carolina on July 27, 1938. She was the daughter of the late Rosebelle Martin Bailey and Leroy P. Hardy. She was raised by her loving grandparents, the late Mrs. Lillie Bell (Martin) Wallace Wilson and Mr. Jessie Wilson. She attended school in the old Waverly District of Columbia, South Carolina.

Mrs. Bailey was a home maker, and the beloved wife of the late, Sergeant First Class, Roosevelt Bailey Jr. She loved music, arts and crafts, flowers / gardening, and caring for the beautiful birds in her yard. She enjoyed entertaining family and friends. And anyone who came to know her enjoyed her animated personality which earned her the nickname “Tuttie Fruttie”.

Mrs. Bailey is survived by her brother and his wife, Mr. Luther James Bailey and Kim Moody-Bailey of Georgia; her brother, Mr. Leonardo Bailey of Florida; her sister and her husband, Mrs. Roselind Bailey-Glover and Joseph M. Glover of Columbia; sister Ms. LaShawn Bailey of New York; and a grandson, Michael R. Bailey, Jr. of Columbia. Mrs. Bailey is also survived by a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and beloved, life-long friends.
