“ I met Lizzie and Elouise Gayle when they visited the Sumter County Genealogical Society Research Center in 2003. By October of that year, they had recruited their cousin Sidney Vaughn to help us find and photograph headstones in the old St. Luke AME Cemetery on Booth Farms property off Stamey Livestock Rd. Even then, the cemetery was so overgrown we could not access much of it. Sidney and the Gayle sisters were real troupers! Sidney told me the story of the original St. Luke Church and School. He pointed out where the school and cookhouse had stood. It was an experience never to be forgotten.

I so regret that I did not figure out where Lizzie was living after Elouise died. I would have loved to visit with her.

Rest in peace, Lizzie Gayle. You were a strong, caring and loyal woman.

“ Deepest condolences from the Jackson family. I am Marie Jackson Pinckney, daughter of the late Sam and Katie Jackson, and the remaining first cousin to Lizzie. Regretfully, I could not attend in person to extend my support to Amelia and be with the family.

As the last first cousin to the lineage of Job Jackson and Hester Geddis, I offer my deepest sympathy to the Gayle and Jackson Families. My parents, Sam and Katie, were very close to Aunt Pluma, Uncle Brooks, Eloise and Lizzie. They are all missed dearly. Lizzie loved her family and spending time with extended family. The family reunions were one of her greatest joys.

Lizzie, you are where you wanted to be, with the Lord and your family.

REST IN PEACE
