“ To the Conyers family:

Sorry I could not be there in person today to comfort you in your loss but know that I am there in thoughts and prayers and share your pain as you travel down this road, having recently travelled it myself. But take comfort in knowing that GOD does not make mistakes. Mrs. Tilly lived a long and beautiful life; one filled with wisdom and grace. I will always remember the good meals and Sunday afternoon playtime spent in her backyard after church and the soft-spoken words of wisdom and discipline that parted from her lips. She was a rock in the community and I am blessed to have these fond memories of her. May she rest in peace and when she awakes in heaven, be united with all the love ones, friends and church members awaiting her arrival. You are in my prayers.

“ To: Charlie, Marie, Daisy, Al, Loraine, and Family,

Please accept Susan and my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your beloved mother. We share your grief during these dark hours but take solace in knowing that it won't be cloudy always, the sun will shine. Please don't think of your loving mother as gone, her joyous journey has just begun. Life holds so many facets, this is only one. Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years. Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but sadness can really pass away. Think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched, for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Finally, we can take comfort in knowing that we will see Mother Conyers when the morning comes. We love her, but God loves her best, sleep on and take your heavenly rest.

“ To Daisy, Charlie, Al, Loraine, Marie and Family,
So deeply sadden to learn of the passing of Godmomma. She will always remain in my heart. Our hearts are heavy now but we must hold on to the fond memories. She was a quiet person with a very strong spirit. I know that she was loved and respected by all who knew her. She now joins Goddaddy, Mom and Dad and all of her other kindreds in Heaven. I envision them all standing at the Gate with arms wide open to greet her.
Love to you all,

“ Godmomma is resting now and does not need that oxygen pump. She can talk as much as she wants and still have the last word. I hope she and Goddaddy Charlie, Nathan, Ms. Marie are enjoying each another. I know she will look my mom, Mary Choice, up when she gets a chance.

I will miss her. I never knew someone that the older they got the more they wanted to talk. She went from quiet and reserved to ready to talk you to sleep and still talking when you wake up. Then asked " I don't know why you so tired, you didn't anything but go to work and sit at a desk all day." (: >)
