

Louise Pulliam Snow

April 30, 1932 - September 25, 2015

Mrs. Louise Pulliam Snow departed this earthly life on Friday, September 25, 2015 at the Palmetto Health Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina. Born on April 30, 1932, she was the third oldest of eight children born to the late Wallace and Missouri Davis Pulliam.

Mrs. Snow was a graduate of West End High School in Clarksville, Va. and Winston Salem Teachers College. She taught for over thirty-five (35) years at Farrow Road Elementary School (later known as William H. Burton). She was a member of the National Education Association and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

She met and married the love of her life, Fred Snow, Jr., a career military man who served his country in the United States Army. They traveled extensively together, both domestically and internationally. To their loving union, two children were born, Fred Alvin Snow and Rosetta Snow Crawford.

Mrs. Snow was a faithful member of Greenview Missionary Baptist Church for over fifty (50) years. She was very active in the Greenview community where she volunteered and exercised constantly. Mrs. Snow maintained her memberships in the following organizations: the Palmetto Chapter of Gold Star Wives; HOPE-Widows of Fallen Veterans and the Eau Claire Shepherd Center. In her spare time, her hobbies included: gardening (especially beautiful flowers), reading, quilting and crocheting. She walked at 7:00 a.m. every morning that the good Lord allowed.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by: three brothers, William, Willie and Wallace; two sisters, Clara P. Hardy and Earline P. Downey.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her children: Fred Alvin Snow of Columbia, SC and Rosetta Snow (her husband John Thomas) Crawford of Newark, N.J.; two grandchildren: Wallace D. Snow and Anthony C. Scott; one great-grandson, Trevon Scott; two sisters, Mary Hodges of Newark, NJ and Dorothy P. Lewis of Boydton, Va.; a brother-in-law, Ernest Downey of Clarksville, Va.; a very special friend who was like a daughter, Joetta "Tina" Stewart of Atlanta, Ga.; and a host of other relatives and friends.
