

Lynn O. Spann

July 15, 1952 - November 10, 2015

Lynn Olson Spann was born July 15, 1952 to the late Eugene and Kathryn Spann in Sumter South Carolina. He attended Salterstown Elementary School and graduated from Sumter High School, Class of 1970. After high school Lynn began his work career with Model Dye then he worked with The Campbell Soup Company for ten years before marrying and relocating to Atlanta, Georgia.

While in Atlanta Lynn was a self-employed contractor for Bellsouth where he installed and maintained public pay phones. After contracting, Lynn worked with PAWS of Atlanta where he expressed his passion for animals. He worked with Publix Warehouse Distributors for five years before retiring. Lynn possessed such a zeal for work that he was admired by all coworkers and employers for his exemplary commitment to his work.

In addition to being a hard working family man, Lynn was seen as a fun loving individual with a sense of humor to everyone that he encountered from the grocery clerk to the mailman. Lynn was an avid basketball and football fan proclaiming the Los Angeles Raiders as his favorite team. He was mostly a nurturing family man that took pride in caring for his family by making sure meal time was not missed and caring for his pets (Jordan, the loved German Shepard, Coco and Jett the family cats and the two turtles that were left in his care).

Lynn leaves to cherish his memory a loving wife of 31 years, Madolyn Jones Spann, two loving daughters: Alexandra Spann of Atlanta and Melissa Richardson (Roosevelt) of Sumter and her two children Donche' (grandson of Maryland) and Che'Nique (granddaughter of Sumter), his loving and supportive siblings Eugene (Femina) Spann Jr. and John (Dieanne) Spann both of Sumter and Michael Spann of Atlanta; Vivian Spann Moore and Maggie Spann Kelley both of Atlanta. Also to cherish his memory are all of his nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, his special Aunt Maggie Mae and special friend Russell Brown.

My mind is in Sumter SC at this time, the pain I feel is indescribable. I will miss all the times we spent together talking about life. Gone but you will never be forgotten. I knew you were growing tired but I didn't want to leave. Heaven has a television for you now so can enjoy watching from up above!

Your Nephew
