

Malcom Bruce Battle

August 9, 1958 - December 16, 2014

Malcolm Bruce Battle was called to rest on Wednesday, December 16, 2014. He was the ninth child of fourteen children born to the late Robert Lee Battle, Sr., and Lillian Carolyn Battle on August 9th, 1958, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Malcolm was educated in the Philadelphia School System. He attended Heston Elementary, Shoemaker Jr. High and Overbrook High School. He enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 1976. After his discharge, Malcolm worked in various jobs throughout his life. He met Keya Powell and they had six beautiful children and moved to Columbia, South Carolina.

He is survived by four brothers. Robert, John, Kirk, and Jerry; five sisters, Joyce, Lynell, Monica(his twin), Myra, Norma, and six children, Tonita, Malk, Rashad, Sharif, Malcolm Jr, Khalif, and five grandchildren, Imani A. Gleaton, Amir, Gleaton, Rashad Jr., Messiah , and Malcolm 3rd.

Malcolm had a great sense of humor and was a great storyteller. He was witty, compassionate loving and sincere. Malcolm would give you the shirt off his back. When you met Malcolm you felt you have known him for years. He was called "Bruce" and his nickname during his heyday was "Lemon." Our brother experienced some tumultuous ups and downs during his lifetime. Eventually he gave his life to Christ and tried to lead by example. He spent his last years trying to make amends with family and friends. We will miss him greatly, but we thank God for the time he was with us.

Tribute Wall

“ Malcom Bruce Battle

October 04, 2023 at 11:33 AM