

Mrs. Margie Ree Gardner-Mack

July 28, 1951 - February 28, 2014

Margie Ree Gardner-Mack was born on July 28, 1951 in Columbia, SC, to the late Jerry Gardner, Sr. and Annie Mae Adams-Gardner. Margie was called to eternal rest on Friday, February 28, 2014 after an extended illness.

Margie knew the Lord and served Him faithfully. At an early age, she became a member of Piney Grove AME Church of Gaston, SC, where she served in various capacities including the Missionary Society, Trustee Board, and Food Committee until her health no longer allowed her to do so.

Even after her health failed, she continued to contribute in any way she could to her family.

Margie attended Lakeview High School in West Columbia, SC. After completing high school, her previous employers included Midlands Technical College, NCR, Hansley Industries, Sodexo Food Service, Bates House and Russell House both at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, SC, and Carolina Catering Service.

Margie was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She was truly a blessing to all that knew her and she would unselfishly help others in their time of need. Margie lived a life worthy of admiration and celebration and while she will be missed dearly, her memory will forever brighten the hearts of those she left behind.

In addition to her parents, Margie was preceded by a son, Edsel Gardner, a daughter, Bridgette Annette Mack, a brother, Jerry Gardner, Jr. and a beloved sister-in-law, Willia Dean Morgan.

Those left to cherish memories are her sons, Vincent Mack (Rhonda), Marion Earl Mack, Jr. and special friend (Natarsha Adams) and Isaiah Porterfield (whom she reared from the age of three days as her own son).; nine grandchildren, Shanta, Dontavious, Kendrell, Carly, Sabrina, Malik, Logan, Jadyne and Tyquesha; one great grandson, Austin Mack; four sisters, Francis Richardson of West Columbia, SC, Patricia Way of Gaston, SC, Ganell Way and Ethel Mae Boozer, both of West Columbia, SC; and a host of devoted nieces; nephews; family and friends. She is remembered fondly by her extended family in Orangeburg, SC and dear friends Ora Davis and Christine Story.

Services will be held 12 noon Saturday, March 8, 2014 at Piney Grove AME Church, with interment to follow in the church cemetery. The family will receive friends 6-7:00 PM Friday, March 7, 2014 at Palmer Memorial Chapel. The family request that condolences and memorials be made on their web page @www.palmermemorialchapel.com

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible promises; "God is near to the brokenhearted." It also says; "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you." (Psalms 34:18 and 55:22) I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.

“"Momma Mack" was truly a blessing to all who knew her. Throughout my years at SC State University, going to and fro with her son "Boo", Momma Mack treated me as if I was her own son.....giving us food, knowledge, and guidance throughout our college years. Momma Mack was able to keep us on the straight and narrow even from afar. Her words still ring in my ears, "Mont, you, Black, and Boo better be doing right down in Orangeburg, it'll catch up with you." Her words of wisdom she would give (as I ate one of her famous prepared plates of food), will eternally remain with me. My heart unconditionally goes out to her family, especially her sons Marion & Vincent. I ask them to seek refuge in The Lord & continually lean on faith in their times of mourning. I ask them to find strength in John 14:2-"In my fathers house, there are many mansions if it were not so, I would've told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself that where I am there ye may be also."

Love y'all!
