

Mildred Pringle Walker

May 2, 1932 - December 31, 2014

Mildred Pringle Walker, 82, wife of Dayton Walker departed this life December 31, 2014 at McLeod Regional Medical Center in Florence, SC. Born in Sumter County, she was a daughter of the late James Pringle and Hattie Geter Pringle.

Mrs. Walker symbolized her dedication to Jehovah God on April 27, 1963; therefore, spending over 51 years as a dedicated servant of Jehovah God. She loved the ministry and found great joy to talking to others about God's Kingdom. As can be seen by Mrs. Walker's example and some of the fruits of her hard labor, she was able to see all five of her children become servants of Jehovah God.

Mrs. Walker had a passion for cooking and caring for others. One of Jehovah God's commands is that we "love one another" which she demonstrated throughout her entire life on many occasions her love was seen and shown to others who knew and did not know her.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, James and Hattie Geter Pringle; three sisters: Ruth Johnson, Annie Laura Swinton, and Eleanor Pringle; eight brothers: Charles Mack, Mark, Luke, James, Harmon, Francis, Marion, and David.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her husband of 65 years Dayton Walker; five children: Elijah (Annie) Walker, David (Valaire) Walker, Harmon Walker, Rudolph (Laura) Walker, and Francine Walker all of Sumter, SC; a special friend like a daughter, Ronell Green of Florence, SC; five grandchildren; two great grandchildren; three sister-in-law Annie Lou Pringle of Sumter, SC, Naomi Walker of Wedgefield, SC and Catherine Walker of Philadelphia, Pa. and a host of family and friends.
