“ Momma Naomi will be missed physically here on Earth but will forever live in the hearts of those that love her. The last thing she said to me is "Did you say your prayers and thank the Lord today?" As the days pass, know that The Geiger family will be in the prayers and thoughts of my family. May God continue to grant you all peace like only he can.

To the Geiger and Hills families it is with regret that I share in your loss at this time in your lives. Mrs. Naomi and your late father created six beautiful strong young women. All of you have accomplished much because of them. Cherish the precious memories that you have of Mrs. Naomi and be very proud for such a rich heritage in a world like this. Be Blessed. Much Love and Peace to each of you and especially My Diva Stylist With A Salon and Spa Mrs. Shavetta G. Belton.

“ There will never be another like this young lady, Mrs. Naomi Hills-Geiger. Her heart and her spirit was that of an angel. She shared her love with everyone that crossed her path, and she cared for all of us who she taught at North High School. She personally touch my heart the very first day I walked into her class when she pointed me out without name recognition. She told me whose daughter I was and said that she'd visited my mother (another former student, Class of '73) at home to speak with her about returning to school after my birth. That alone was enough for me to respect and love Mrs. Geiger from that day forward. She took the time to love a student enough to not give up on them. My heart is heavy from her passing and she will be missed dearly, but 2 Corinthians 5:8 says "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." So with that, I say to our beloved, Mrs. Geiger, love you much, but sleep in peace.
