

Mrs. Neomi Bookert English

November 5, 1935 - December 13, 2014

Mrs. Neomi Bookert English, affectionately known as "Cadillac Momma," departed this earthly life on Saturday December, 13, 2014 at Palmetto Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina. Born in Richland County on November 5, 1935, she was a daughter of the late Arthur Bookert and Mattie Blocker Bookert.

Mrs. English was employed by the Palmetto Health Richland Hospital as a nurse technician and provided over 25 years of dedicated service.

She was a faithful life-long member of Taylor Chapel AME Church where she served in many capacities including: member of the Missionary Society, Senior Choir, former President of the Taylor Chapel Choir Union, Superintendent and President of the Sunday School, Communion Steward, and on several occasions earned the title of "Miss Taylor Chapel". Mrs. English also served as Chairman of the Trustee and Stewardess Boards and served as the Church Clerk. She loved her church and was passionate about serving the Lord every day of her life.

In her spare time, she was an active member of the Martha Chapel Chapter #580, Cleopatra Court, Herod of Jerico, Order of Eastern Star and the VFW Post #4262. Mrs. English was a person who never met a stranger. She loved people and had a no nonsense personality that she mixed with a sense of humor.

She was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life, Elder Colie English, Sr. for 60 years until his recent passing on October 27, 2014. To this loving union, six children were born. In addition to her husband and parents, two children preceded her in death, Colie English, Jr. and Deborah Diane English Moore; four sisters: Vera Ray, Dorothy Dozier, Wilhemenia Singleton; two brothers Chief Bookert and Richard Allen Bookert.

Mrs. English leaves to cherish precious memories: two sons, Stephen (Mace) English and Daniel Gerald English of Columbia, SC; two daughters, Miriam English (Joe) Jackson and Tracey Minick, Danielle English, Demareon Moore, Joe Jackson, II, Brittany Minick and Devantea Moses; four great grandchildren: Alayah McCray, Synia Minick, Corlayah Green and D'nayah McCray; and a host of other relatives and friends.
