

Norman Bradley Jr.

June 8, 1939 - April 22, 2017

Norman Bradley, Jr. 79, husband of the late Dorothy Alston Bradley, departed this earthly life on Saturday, April 22, 2017, in Tacoma, Washington. Born in Darlington, South Carolina, on June 8, 1937, he was the only son and middle child of three children born to the late Norman Sr. and Elizabeth Brailey Bradley.

Raised in Hartsville, South Carolina, he attended the Hartsville Public Schools, and was a graduate of Mayo High School. He enlisted in the United States Army and served his country with the Vietnam War, completing two tours of duty and 21 years of service until his retirement in 1976. He was employed for many years in the Fort Lewis Commissary as a Transportation Specialist. While employed at the Commissary, he retired to Evergreen Community College where he earned his Associate's Degree in Business Management.

In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing, working on automobiles, football (his favorite teams were the Baltimore Ravens and Seattle Sea Hawks). He married the love of his life, Dorothy Alston, and their loving union was blessed with two daughters, Barbara Elaine and Datra Suzette.

In addition to his parents and beloved wife, he was preceded in death by a sister, Catherine Bradley.

He leaves to cherish precious memories his attentive daughters: Barbara (Jerome) Chisolm of Navarre, Florida, and Datra (Carleton) Thomas of Clarksville, Tennessee; one grandson, Carlton Thomas, III; a great-grandson, Damian Edward Thomas; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ With deepest sympathy to Bradley 's family and friends. My hope is that the words of Rev.20:13 bring comfort to all, and it says "The sea gave up the dead in it, and death and the Grave gave up the dead in them .John11:25.
