“ To Family and Friends of Mr Harmon~ I read of the loss of your dear loved one, and would like to extend my sincere condolences. Death is an enemy that Our Creator never intended for us to ever have to deal with-even as the Bible says. Please, take comfort in knowing that soon, He, has promised to remove all causes of suffering, pain, sorrow, and even death forever! (Revelation 21:3-5) The wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 5:28,29. May I assure you, I am not trying to give or change your religion. The pain of loss is felt, regardless of religion. May all of you be strengthened and comforted by these promises as you cope with the very difficult days ahead.(2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ I met Odist back in 1993 when I was a coworker with him at AMP in Columbia. Odist would always light up the break room in the mornings with his infectious laugh and his broad smile. We would all look forward to seeing Odist over a morning cup of coffee because he always had something positive to say or a joke to tell. I haven't seen you in a long time big guy but it seems like yesterday. Rest In Peace my Brother, Rest In Peace. Jeffrey G.

" And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified." Romans 8:28-30

I will miss the earthly presents of my friend, but I have faith in the promise of God for a heavenly reunion.
