

Osfred Boston

August 6, 1953 - May 14, 2020

Mid-afternoon Thursday, May 14, 2020, another soul received its eternal reward. Osfred Boston quietly took his last breath at his residence in Columbia, South Carolina. Born August 6, 1953, in Charleston, South Carolina, he was the eldest of four children born to the late Rev. Benjamin Pleasant Boston, Sr. and Ineatha Gathers Boston.

A member of Antioch AME Church and the son of a pastor, he traveled with his parents and siblings to numerous churches through his lifetime. He was a graduate of Manchester High School in the Class of 1969. He attended South Carolina State College (now University) where he majored in business. He was employed in various capacities from truck driving, banking, manufacturing to food service.

On November 27, 2003, he married the love of his life, Pamela Glover. From this union, a blended family arose with Dana Glover and Milton Glover.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Benjamin Boston, Jr.

He leaves to cherish precious memories his wife Pamela Glover of Columbia; five grandchildren: Maliaka Mujahid, Jama D. Glover, Elijah Gerard Glover, Milton Gerard Glover, and Montrese Glover; one great-grandchild, Jaylen

Matthew Glover; two sisters: Theophila Boston (Alphonso) Murray of Richmond, Virginia, and Babette Boston of Columbia; a nephew, Marquis Boston of Richmond; a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.
