“ I keep checking back here when you are on my mind. This recent photo of me and Diane brings me to tears again. It is a fond moment of many. Thanks Debbie. I still haven't deleted text messages, emails, and voicemail messages from you Diane. Still in awe that God called his angel home so soon. No more CIAA for me, that's for sure. It won't be the same without you Diane! My last office visit to Charlotte was lonely and boring. Still missing you!!!

“ Diane, Our paths crossed because we had a mutual friend in Debbie, one of your oldest and long time buddies. When I met you , we were both surprised that we had the same last name and always joked about somehow being related. We spent a lot of time going back thru our heritage to see how and by whom. Well, we didn't discover some long lost, secret relatives, but, we were related... related in a friendship bond that was truly a blessing to me.

Your laughter was infectious, your "matter of fact" wit was something to be envied. I will forever remember the times we talked, laughed, and analyzed life trying to figure out the "whys and wherefores" of life. You were an inspiration to me and I 'm so glad to have known you.

I only remember Jibri as a little boy, but what stood out so blatantly to me is how much you loved him and wanted and did only what was best for him, laying the foundation with a mother wit that would insure he would grow and mature into the young man that I'm sure will make you proud. The foundation you gave him, the legacy you have left with him was wrapped in love and will be the launching pad for a great and successful life and destiny. He was and is your Masterpiece. God will take it from here. Be at peace, my friend. I will miss you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Peggy was always giving and taking care of her co-workers birthdays etc.. She never met a stranger, she was out going and loved to laugh and talk...I nicknamed her social butterfly. She loved her son so much she smiled and talked about him nearly every day, as us mothers always say no matter how old they get they are our baby. We know that you are hurting and we hurt to. I don't understand everything God allow to happen but I trust his will. Peggy has left a life time of memories I pray we all can take solace in them.

To Bree and the Family,

Ms. Peggy has been a co-worker of mine for the past 3 years here at Bank of America. We were desk neighbors for over a year and during that time I and Ms. Peggy became good buddies. We are both Virgos so our personalities were somewhat the same so we could understand one another. Ms. Peggy LOVED HER FAMILY AND HER SON with all her heart. She would always talk to me about Bree and how she was going to "kill him" for some of the things she did not agree with while he was a Student and Central but I would always let Ms. Peggy know that he was just being an college student. Ms. Peggy had a heart of gold and tough love which I could attest to because her birthday was the same week as my father. In January of 2014 my father unexpectedly passed away and the day after the funeral I received a flower arrangement and the person who was in charge of this was none other than Ms. Peggy. Even when I returned to work she had my favorite a pound cake with creme icing. I never would have thought I would be writing this so soon after my father death but GOD knows best. Bree please continue to keep your head held high and I want you to know from a Mother boy myself your mother truly LOVED YOU even though it may have been tough LOVE. She was only doing this to help you when you go out to an even tougher world one day. I know it will be hard Bree and you may want to give up but continue to further your education and take the morals and values your mother has given you and keep the faith and believe that GOD has your back. I can relate to you because I lost my mother at the age of 24 which was only 11 years ago. To the Family and Bree may God continue to be with you all and keep the faith that Ms. Peggy is alright and know that she was well loved her at Bank of America. RIP MS. PEGGY!

“ My heart is broken. You were my oldest childhood friend and I still can't believe you're gone. But, I will forever cherish the fond memories I have of us growing up. Two bare feet, country girls playing hop-scotch, spending our little change at Hood's store, and sitting under the shade tree talking about boys. Who would've believed that years later you would introduce me to my husband.

What a wonderful friend you were, life will not be the same without you.

I love and miss you, Diane!

“ Jibri,

As a long-time friend of your mother's, I know how special of a person she was. I feel a great loss. I'm praying that God grants you and the family strength at this time. And that He gives you comfort that is as genuine and sweet as a mother's touch.

Always Remembered,

Love Lorraine
