

Mrs. Rosa Lee McDaniel-Jones

June 2, 1923 - July 3, 2015

Rosa Lee McDaniel-Jones, 92, wife of the late George Jones, Sr., departed this earthly life on Friday, July 3, 2015 at the Sumter Valley Health and Rehabilitation Center of Sumter, South Carolina. Born on June 2, 1923 in Woodrow, South Carolina, she was one of four children born to the late Christina and Solomon McDaniel.

Mrs. Jones was educated in the public schools of Lee County. She was employed at Shaw Air-force Base as a childcare provider and later at Ashwood Central High School as a custodian, where she remained until her health began to fail. Her hobbies were cooking and sewing. She was an awesome cook and was known and loved for her soul food and the most delicious cakes and pies. Mrs. Jones enjoyed fellowshiping with her family and friends.

Mrs. Jones accepted Christ at an early age. She was a lifelong member of Mechanicsville United Methodist Church and was a devoted and faithful member of the Gospel Choir.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Jones was preceded in death by two brothers, Isaac McDaniel and Mallie Mickens.

Those left to cherish her precious memories are: three daughters, Evelena

Gass, Willingboro, New Jersey Lillie Mae(Lucious) Jennings and Ellen Green all of Sumter, South Carolina; seven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; nine great-great grandchildren; a brother James McDaniel, Charlotte, North Carolina; sister-in-law, Mattie Mickens, Patterson, New Jersey ; a very dear friend Ollie Mae Pearson; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ *Don't weep for me
For I've made it home
Through Heaven's gates
There I may roam.*

*Wipe your tears
And dry your eyes
I'm in a better place
With Heaven as my prize.*

*Don't weep for me
No tears and no sorrow
Live life for Jesus
He promises tomorrow.*

*In Loving Memory
