“ Rosalind, you always called me by my government name when I answered the phone. I miss that. 😊❤️ We never had an unkind word between us. You have been my sister/friend since forever. We played with dolls when we were children, talked about boys when we teenagers, and discovered the world when we became adults. I miss you my friend. 😭 You and mom were the first ones I would call when there was a major event in my life. You were the first person I asked to be a bridesmaid. You are family and forever will be. God chose you to be an angel. I thank Him for giving us you. Love always, your sister. ❤️❤️❤️

“ My Deepest Sympathy to The Family of Roz. I met Roz years ago through our mutual friend Tasha. Roz always carried herself with class and style, you knew immediately she was raised in the admonition of God. Sleep now my Sister, see you on that great day, when we meet again. You will be missed. 🙏❤️
