“ Sincere condolences are extended to the family of Sallie Mae. I have many fond memories of Sallie Mae from the days she worked at her father's grocery store, Hill's Grocery on Gervais Street (one of the many black own businesses in the neighborhood). I worked next door at Dixie 5 and dime Store. We shared many conversations over the years. Sallie was kind, caring , soft spoken and compassionate. She later became one of our Columbia High School parents. I also had the good fortune of fellowshipping with her from time to time at Zion Chapel. It was always good to see her and listen to choir when they were singing. May God grant the family the peace and comfort needed during this time of bereavement.

“ Auntie Sallie Mae had such a sweet spirit. I'll always remember the many meals eaten around the dining room table. I'll remember her visits to Italy and Germany. I'll remember her love of all children and the love she had for her nieces and nephews. Her beautifully soft voice would sing songs of praise or give words of encouragement. I can only imagine a world if more people lived and loved like this precious one. Go on auntie! Take your rest.....good and faithful servant! I love you!
